1. Before You Start

GoTrade2 is a new generation of multi-functional mobile wealth management application developed by 2GoTrade Limited. In addition to securities trading, it also provides functions such as account inquiry, IPO subscription, fund deposit and withdrawal, etc. This manual will introduce the usage and procedures in detail. Please note the following important messages:

- Because the system configurations of different brokerage firms are different, for example, you may need to disable the previous generation of mobile applications and upgrade to GoTrade2 first or use the dedicated version of your securities firm to log in directly. This manual will explain further in the relevant chapters.
- Depending on the Hong Kong stock and index licenses withheld by your brokerage firm, or the Hong Kong stock quotes program you use, the Hong Kong stock index and/or individual stock quotes in this app will be displayed in real time/delayed or not displayed.
- The system master settings of your brokerage firm will also make some functions in this manual unavailable.

For details, please contact your brokerage or E-tech technical support hotline (852) 22320300 / email cs-hk@2gotrade.com.

Disclaimer

2GoTrade Limited has used best effort to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the information provided in this manual, but cannot guarantee its absolute accuracy and reliability, and will not be liable for any loss or damage caused by any inaccuracies or omissions.

In case of any discrepancies of meaning between Chinese and English version of this manual, Chinese version shall prevail.

Important notes

- All the above-mentioned order types must use the GTD function. The default setting is the current trading day expiration.
- All the above-mentioned order types only support direct access to the Hong Kong stock market.
- Depending on master settings of the brokerage, some or all the order types may be disabled.
- Modifying such orders is not supported. If you want to change (including changing the expiration date), you can only cancel and place the order.
- The above-mentioned order types (including GTD order) will not deal with the impact on the stock price after corporate actions such as splitting and ex-dividend of securities, so there is an opportunity to trigger orders that are far from the closing price of the previous day to the market. Please pay attention.
- Market conditions are volatile, securities prices or transaction conditions may be very volatile, and conditional orders may not be properly executed according to preset trigger conditions.
